IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE CLAIM

Christopher I Zion:

We received your Unemployment Insurance (UI) claim with a beginning date of 12/14/2025 and an ending date of 12/12/2026. The amount of benefits you will be entitled to receive if you are found to be eligible is based on wages you earned between 07/01/2024 and 06/30/2025. Please confirm that the information below includes the correct employer(s) and all of your wages during that time.

Employer	Jul - Sep 2024	Oct - Dec 2024	Jan - Mar 2025	Apr - Jun 2025	Total Wages for Employer
2020 COMMUNICATIONS INC		$1,420.77	$157.00		$1,577.77
MKPAYROLL				$8,695.93	$8,695.93
OASIS OUTSOURCING ADMIN II LLC	$2,329.26	$119.69			$2,448.95
SKECHERS USA	$3,024.38	$3,830.79	$2,997.99	$185.02	$10,038.18
Total Wages:	$5,353.64	$5,371.25	$3,154.99	$8,880.95	$22,760.83

If your base period contains wages that are from an educational institution, a school bus company contracted to an educational institution, professional athletic and/or seasonal employer and you are filing for benefits during a period between academic terms, sports seasons or other designated seasons, those wages may be exempted and not be a part of your monetary entitlement during that period. If that occurs, you will receive a determination with further information.

If everything listed above is complete and correct, you do not need to contact us. If you have additional employers and/or wages to report, or if corrections are needed, and you have not previously reported this information to us, see the last page of this document.

This monetary determination will not reflect wages earned out-of-state or wages earned from federal civilian or military service. See Special Instructions for Federal, Military, or Out-of-State Wages on the last page of this document.

Based on the wages above, if we determine that you are eligible for UI benefits, you may receive:

Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA):	$320.00
Maximum Benefit Amount (MBA):	$7,587.00
Benefit Year Begins (BYB):	12/14/2025
Benefit Year Ends* (BYE):	12/12/2026

*the last date to receive benefits associated with this claim

Does this mean I will receive UI benefits? Not necessarily. Every claim has to be reviewed before a decision on eligibility can be made. That is why it is important that you send us information on missing wages or employers as soon as possible.

Why not more money? Under state law, the weekly and maximum benefit amounts of your UI claim are determined by the amount of wages you earned during the base period of 07/01/2024 and 06/30/2025. The maximum amount of weekly unemployment benefits in Arizona is $320.00 a week. The maximum amount of time you can receive state funded benefits is 24 weeks. Per A.R.S. 23-780, if the unemployment rate in the prior calendar quarter is five percent or more your maximum benefit award will be 26 times your weekly benefit amount. If the unemployment rate in the prior calendar quarter is less than five percent your maximum benefit award will be 24 times your weekly benefit amount. If there is a change during your benefit year you will receive a Monetary Redetermination.

For more information, such as how the weekly and maximum benefit amounts are calculated, please refer to the handbook, A Guide to Arizona UI Benefits.

What if I have additional employers and/or wages to report, or if corrections are needed? You need to let us know as soon as possible. If any wages are missing from the dates shown above, you will need to submit proof of the missing wages (e.g., check stubs, W-2s, etc.). If you did not work for one or more of the employers listed or the wages were reported incorrectly, you will need to provide a copy of a government issued photo ID and your social security card, along with a signed statement stating that the wages are not correct. The fastest way to do this is by logging into CACTUS at azui.com and selecting "Request a Redetermination of Your Benefit Amount" under Unemployment Services on your dashboard.

What if I can't do it online? Complete this form and return it, along with your proof of wages and/or supporting documentation by email to uiclaimdocs@azdes.gov or by fax to (602) 364-1211 or (520) 770-3357, or by mail to the return address shown on this form. Check the type of employer in the boxes in the first column. Look on your check stubs or W-2s for the employers' names and mailing addresses. Use an additional page if necessary. A wage protest can also be filed by completing the Wage Protest form (UB-217C) available at azui.com and emailing the form to uitaxwage.protest@azdes.gov

Special Instructions for Federal, Military, or Out-of-State Wages - If you reported on your initial claims application that you earned wages in another state or from the federal government (federal civilian or military), then a request has already been submitted to confirm these wages were paid to you. You will receive a revised determination once we have confirmation of these wages. If you earned federal or military wages, you must submit documentation for your claim to be processed. If your employment was from a federal civilian employer, you can provide documentation such as check stubs, W-2s, SF8s, or SF50s, or for military wages, you can provide your DD 214 Member 4 copy (or Member 2 copy or DD 215 or NOAA 56-16). You can upload these documents from your claimant dashboard in CACTUS using the Unemployment Claim Document Requests link, or submit by email to uiclaimdocs@azdes.gov, or fax to (520) 746-4466.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT FRAUD THAT YOU SHOULD KNOW Reporting false information in order to receive Unemployment Insurance benefits could result in a determination of fraud. Any benefits paid to you that you were not entitled to receive will result in an overpayment. All overpayments of unemployment benefits must be repaid in full. We will automatically collect any overpayment balances through the offset of future unemployment benefit payments. In addition, the Department reserves the right to assess penalties, garnish your federal and/or state income tax refunds, suspend recreational licenses, and take any legal collection actions as prescribed by law. If your overpayment is found to be the result of fraud, you will be disqualified from receiving unemployment benefits from the point the fraudulent act was committed to the end of that claim's benefit year. In addition, you will be disqualified from receiving unemployment benefits for 52 weeks from the date the fraud determination was made.
